In the discharge of the duties devolved upon me, as Public School Inspector of the Second District, it is my desire to co-operate in every way in my power, with my co-laborers in the department; and I feel it to be my immediate duty to lay before you such suggestions as an experience of thirty-five years, spent in closely studying the nature of man, enables me to make. In the first place, the most important fact which has been apparent to me, after having...
