

Youthoria: Adolescent Substance Misuse - Problems, Prevention and Treatment (Paperback)

By Phil Harris

Russell House Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 244 x 176 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Work with young people on issues of substance misuse has for too long been based on adult-oriented research and adapted from adult-focussed practice. Introducing and assessing the evidence base that is being developed around work with children and young people, Youthoria provides startling and compelling conclusions that revise not only our understanding of problematic young substance users, but also of young people in all contexts of need. It: A A explains how young peopleA fs problematic substance use is not a random occurrence, but is entwined in adolescent development itself A A offers new directions in which to assess young people, in ways that are truly developmentally informed, so as to implement effective prevention and treatment efforts. Youthoria will help anyone working with young people and families, not only to develop a framework for learning and practice that makes sense of the complexity of young peopleA fs needs.but to do so in ways which make sense to young people too. It: A A offers guided access to an extraordinarily wide range of published research, evidence and practice wisdom -...
