0.4in. PROLOGUE I couldnt see what was meant to be. My experience was rooted in the present it was not open to a future fantastic experience that could be mine. I was just like a blind man touching an elephant. I could only feel the part I was touching. Years after the events recorded in this book were well past and gone, I was now in a wonderful position and was having a great life. I now lived in another country; I had a great wife, a good job, owned a nice house, travelled regularly on nice vacations and had a fantastic lifestyle. However, I get ahead of myself . This book is of a time gone by, now well and truly past, of a different era, of a different life that I once had.

INTRODUCTION This is a story about a journey. A journey down a road called divorce. This is a personal journey recorded in a combination of prose and poem. To others, we had it all. To me I had also fooled myself that we also...
