PART II CAUSES OF FAILURE Some Causes of Success. So that we may have a clear idea as to the causes of failure, let us first notice some essentials of permanent success. The reader should think of a few such essentials. Let him work out the conditions under which he would succeed, if he himself tried to introduce some great change into the lives of his fellow-countrymen, then he will be more lenient in condemning the failures of Vegetarianism. There is need of authority, and of recognised and orthodox authority in particular. There is need that the advisers should have faith in their cause, faith backed up by good reasons, and backed up by good results. The advisers must appeal to all the strongest motives and means of persuasion, remembering that one of these is the eye: they must not deny the...
