Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Intemperance an Appeal to the Youth of Zion; The Folly of Drunkenness and the Nobility of a Temperate Life Compared; Figures That Tell a Fearful Story; Examples From Real Life With these facts before us, we are prompted to make an attempt, assisted by our heavenly Father, which shall be preventive and reformatory in its character. We are perfectly willing that the elderly and aged of every clime, creed and color shall derive all possible benefit from our feeble effort, but our chief object is to bless the young. The Lord has blessed His people in the vales of Utah and adjoining Territories and States with a numerous posterity, and they will continue to come to His faithful sons and daughters in an ever-increasing ratio, until they are as numberless to man as the sands upon the sea shore. Their work is important, and their destiny is great. Knowing this, the adversary has introduced modern civilization, with which to allure and destroy by making them drunkards, and setting traps for their drunken feet, into which they may walk and corrupt themselves in body and mind, render themselves unfit to fill their life s mission, and rob themselves of the glorious destiny which awaits them. Hence, we wish to exert an influence with the younger portion of the rising generation, to induce them to shun bad company, to contract no bad habits, and to live pure before God; and with the elder portion, who may be too rapidly forming within themselves monster appetites for tobacco and intoxicating drinks, to stop self-destruction in every respect, and preserve and exercise their God-given physical and mental powers in the...
