Preparation. - Many thousand years ago there was no earth, no sun, no moon, no star, no animal; not even man existed. God alone reigned supreme then as always. We shall now see how God created the earth, the sun, the moon, the stars, the animals upon the earth, the birds in the air, the fish in the sea, and last - the most perfect of creatures - man. B. Narration. - Points: (1) The Creation of the World. (2) The Institution of the Sabbath. C. Explanation. - (a) In the beginning - that is to say, before the world was formed, the time when nothing existed but God alone - God created - that is, by His divine power He called forth out of nothing - heaven and earth - heaven, the invisible world wherein the angels dwell; the earth, the visible world, the temporary abiding-place of man. This earth as first called forth was not beautiful as now, but a great waste of waters, a place desolate, empty, void - without animal or plant - it had not yet been prepared for man. Over the wide expanse of desolate waters, whose great depths covered vast precipices, the Spirit of God moved, that all might be brought from chaos to order and made into a habitable earth for the being man He was later to create. And God said: Be light made - Light full, complete, independent light. And God said: Let...
