Competition law therefore has to regulate the market powers of those who participate in the global exchange of goods and services. There are now at least 80 systems of competition law in the world, in all continents and in all types of economies; many others are in contemplation. . . . 2. It has a substantial impact upon the outline of agreements. With Articles 81 and 82 of the EEC Treaty EU jurisprudence and the legislative bodies of the Member States (MMS) have a basis to work on this topic of immense importance. Ignoring the competition rules not seldom lead to large fines being levied by the European Commission (in July 1991 Tetra Pak was fined because of competition law infringement with a record sum of...
